

My Favorite (Fair Trade) Things--lyrics by Christina D. Smith

(sung to the tune of "My Favorite Things")

Cocoa and coffee, bananas and chocolates,
Clothing and footwear and handbags with pockets,
Brown sugar that you can spin into strings
These are a few of the best fair trade things.

Cream-colored whole grains, crisp apples for strudels,
Pears and strawberries and yes, even noodles,
Wild rice for making your soup kettle sing,
These are a few of the best fair trade things,

Soothing herb teas to sip as Mom relaxes,
Hand-crafted gifts to give smiles to the masses
Silver-white sugar can give cupcakes bling,
These are a few of the best fair trade things,

When I feel that I can't help out, that makes me so sad. But I simply remember to buy fair trade things, and then I don't feel so bad!
